EX PARTE OR LATE FILED

Dear Mr. Leggett:

The White House has asked the Federal Communications Commission to respond to your letter regarding the Commission's Notice of Proposed Rule Making on low power FM (LPFM) radio service. In your letter, you express your view that the Commission should authorize LPFM service.

On January 20, 2000, the Commission issued a Report and Order, concluding our rule making proceeding, by authorizing two new classes of noncommercial LPFM service designed to serve very localized communities or underrepresented groups within communities. The Report and Order seeks to fulfill the potential for new uses and users of the spectrum without compromising the existing excellent radio service provided to the American public. The Report and Order stated that a noncommercial service will be the best way to bring additional diversity to broadcasting and serve local community needs in a focused manner with LPFM service.

The new services we authorized are: (1) LP 100, with power from 50-100 watts and a service radius of about 3.5 miles; and (2) LP10, with power from 1-10 watts and a service radius of about 1 to 2 miles. To prevent interference, we are imposing station separation requirements between new LPFM and existing radio stations on co-, 1st- and 2nd- adjacent and intermediate frequency (IF) channels. We will not impose 3rd adjacent separation requirements because the engineering data and tests in the proceeding demonstrated that 100 watt LPFM service will not cause any unacceptable levels of interference to existing radio stations separated by three channels.

Further information on LPFM radio will be available on the FCC's LPFM website at www.fcc.gov/mmb/prd/lpfm or interested parties can call the FCC's free telephone number 1-888-CALLFCC (1-888-225-5322).

Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Sincerely,

Roy J. Stewart

[Message]

Hello,
Please support the FCC's proposal to allow neighborhoods and communities to set up low power FM radio broadcasting stations. This proposal is their Notice of Proposed Rule Making MM 99-25.

Include low power FM broadcasting in your discussions and comments to the press. Let us know that you support neighborhood and community access to the broadcast airwaves. At the present time, only giant corporations have access to broadcasting. Neighborhood broadcasting should be allowed.

Have a good day.
